

Anthony N. Pangilinan better known as a media personality, having been a TV News Anchor for over 8 years, a pageant and event host since the early 90's, a radio and TV program host, and a personal endorser for select products and programs, and an awardee for Best Host by The Aliw Awards Foundation.

Anthony, however, is a management trainer, motivational speaker, productivity consultant by profession and lead consultant for management programs for companies such as McCann-Erickson, Leo Burnett, Lopez Group of Companies, Citibank, Smart Communications, United Laboratories and Robinsons Land Corporation. He is the Chairman and CHIEF DISTURBER of BusinessWorks, Inc., a 16-year old company dedicated to High-Impact Training Seminars, Learning Events and Hypermedia Productions. He is also a Director and the Chief Trainer of Inspire Leadership Consultancy, the official licensee of all John Maxwell and Zig Ziglar corporate programs in the Philippines and Executive Director of the PLDT-Smart Foundation.

This Ulirang Ama Awardee for 2000 and Huwarang Ama Awardee for 2004 acknowledges however, that he is best known as the husband of multi-awarded actress and “super-mom” Maricel Laxa and the father of four lovely children, Ella, Donny, Hannah and Benjamin.