

Gianna R. Montinola earned her Bachelor of Arts degree in International Relations from Mt. Holyoke College in the United States and her Bachelor of Laws degree, with honors, from the Ateneo College of Law. She worked as an associate lawyer of the Quisumbing & Torres Law office until her assignment abroad as Philippine Honorary Consul to the Republic of Peru. Upon her return to the Philippines, she assumed the post of Business Development Manager at Rockwell Land Corporation. At present, she is a Director of Far Eastern University where she is active in the academe. She is also a director of Robinsons

True Serve Hardware Philippines, Inc., the company which manages and operates the True Value stores in the Philippines.

On the non-profit side, she is a co-founder and Trustee of Hands On Manila Foundation, Inc, a foundation that is dedicated to the advocacy of volunteerism in the country. She is also a Director of PeaceTech, Inc., an organization which is committed to the resolution of conflicts between Muslims and non-Muslims in the Philippines. She is a member of the Heritage Conservation Society, The Asia Society and the Museum Foundation of the Philippines.