

JOSE NOEL OLANO

The Executive Director of PARFUND from 2002 until the present. As PARFUND Executive Director, he is responsible in conceptualizing resource mobilization for the organization and spearheads the implementation of community based projects for the farming communities being assisted by PARFUND. He was the former Undersecretary for Operations of the Department of Agrarian Reform (1992-1996) and former Executive Director of the Philippine Development Assistance Program or PDAP (1996-2002). As PDAP executive director he managed two major Canadian International Development Agency (CIDA) programs; the Promoting Participation in Sustainable Enterprises (PPSE) program and the Promoting Peace and Development in the Special Zone for Peace and Development Areas. He was also involved in various consultancy work in the following: Program Evaluation and Impact Assessment; Institutional Strengthening & Capacity Building; and Program Formulation and Design / Feasibility Study Preparation