

Vivien Chiam is the Partnerships and Communications Officer based in IDRC's Regional Office for Southeast and East Asia, Singapore. She supports the strategic partnering and communication needs of IDRC's programs and research partners in the region. She is also part of the Partnerships team that pioneered the Capacity Building in Resource Mobilization (CB-RM) initiative for Asia in 2003, and has since then been actively involved in implementing more than a dozen CB-RM training workshops for IDRC's research partners. Vivien's professional and personal interests lie in building women's networks. She is the co-founder of the Singapore Women in Technology interest group and holds executive positions in several women's business and professional associations in Singapore. Vivien has an M.B.A. (majoring in Strategic Management) and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Marketing, UK.